THE MARCH AGAINST THE MINES

Only Once Was There a Disturbance and That Was When a Lookout on a Plum Creek Tiptoe Became Overzealous.

Pittsburg, July 29.—Striking miners have won a partial victory against the mastery hand of W. P. De Armit. In their march against his mines this morning, they stopped one pit completely and crippled the working force of another. More than 200 of his employees went to the mass meeting at McCrea's schoolhouse to-day to hear Eugene V. Debs and other labor leaders speak.

The situation at the mines to-night shows Sandy Creek pit idle, Turtle Creek working with one-third force, and the Plum Creek pit short a dozen men. Encouraged by this favorable showing, the miners' officials have leased a plot of ground near the schoolhouse, established a permanent camp and have invited miners from all over the district to personally aid the strike agitation among De Armit's men.

The march against the mines began at 1 a. m. and was participated in by 2,000 diggers, divided into three detachments, each headed by a band. The leaders of all of them got their men to the pits at the appointed hour. There was no serious disorder.

Lookout Was Aroused.
At Plum Creek the strains of the life and drum corps at daybreak aroused the lookout on the tiptoe. He sent a warning screaming up the valleys from the pit whistle and fired five shots from a Winchester to arouse the deputies.

Headless of the threatening preparations, the strikers proceeded to the pit mouth, stopped the men, argued with them and let them go again with the intimation of no further injury than the loss of a well-aimed shot, which some striker in his half-frenzied condition had snatched and emptied.

At Sandy Creek the miners' triumph was complete. Diggers yielded to the request to quit without a word. Under orders, they doffed their pit togs, dressed in their best and accepted an invitation to attend the meeting. While the miners changed their clothes the band played a lively air, and the women flocked from the houses and danced with the strikers about the dry roadway.

Two-Thirds Quit Work.
At Turtle Creek two-thirds of the working force was taken to the meeting. A gon-sold car of deputies guarded the peace at this point, and the strikers' band was not permitted to play.

Resident Debs, M. P. Carrick and President Patrick Dolan, of the Miners' Union, spoke at the big mass meeting to-day. More than 3,000 men, some of whom tramped twenty-five miles across the country, gathered about the speakers. Carrick created a sensation when he advised, rather than destroy any quarrel's property, that the strikers write the names of the black legs. Sheriff Lowry, of Allegheny County, and four deputies attended the meeting but refused to interfere. Those conversant with the situation in the local field regard to-day's movements against De Armit's mine as only a preliminary to a more severe and a more extensive campaign that is to follow soon. It is estimated that the miners' officials have a plan of invasion under consideration that is given new favor in their eyes by to-day's development. It is a plan that if put into execution will probably induce a clash between the strikers and the De Armit forces that promises costly results.

6,000 at the Meeting.
When the meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning there were 3,000 striking miners in attendance, and before it was well under way there were 5,000 persons in the vicinity of the schoolhouse. Previous to the meeting Eugene V. Debs, District President Dolan, Secretary Warner and M. P. Carrick went among the strikers and counseled them to keep within the bounds of decency and preserve good order throughout the day. Their advice was received with good grace by the men, who cheered the officials enthusiastically.

President Dolan was made chairman of the meeting and in a short speech accused De Armit of insincerity. He said that if De Armit's men did not come out there would be a sympathy strike all over the United States.

M. P. Carrick was next introduced and stated that workingmen all over the United States are interested in this strike because it will have a tendency to raise wages everywhere.

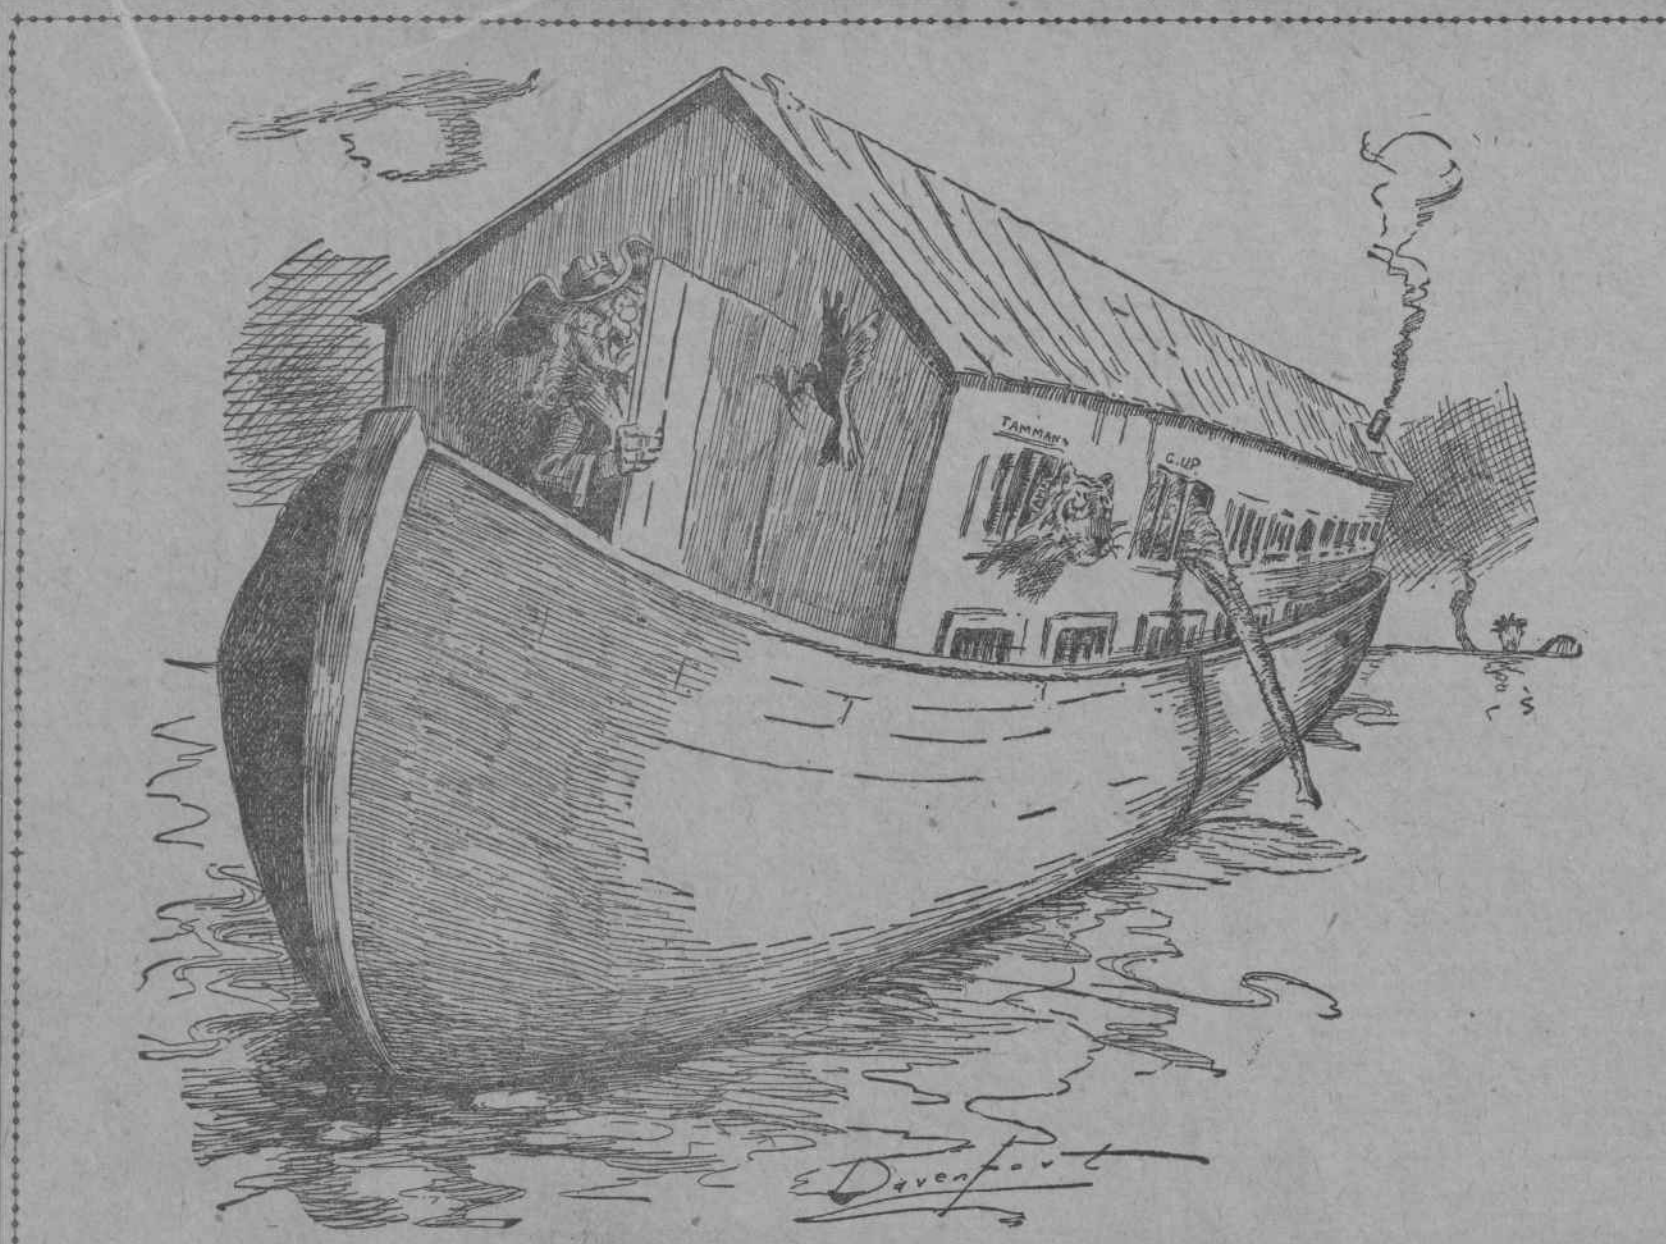

"If you men of the De Armit mines will come out now we will march 50,000 men here and compel you to come out, not by force, but by shame. We will shame you by our starving women and children. You are robbing the world of commerce, and the whole labor world will strike in sympathy with us, if need be. Resort to no violence, my friends. Trust in your leaders and we will win this strike in other ways than by violence."

When Eugene V. Debs was introduced there was much enthusiasm. He said in part: "I am here, not to encourage passion, but to appeal to reason. You are in the midst of the greatest crisis the world has ever known. Whether you succeed or fail depends on yourselves. In order to win you must remain absolutely sober until the contest is over. Whiskey clouds the brain, robs you of your money and makes you meet ruin and also makes you do just what your enemies want you to do."

After the meeting the strikers went into camp and had lunch. There was no trouble of any kind.

STRIKE BULLETIN NO. 2.
Ratchford Expresses Greater Confidence of Victory Than Ever and Gives Figures of Men Out.

Columbus, July 29.—Bulletin No. 2, from the headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America.

NOAH KNICKERBOCKER—"WELL, IS THE SHOWER OVER AT LAST?"

ers of America to the miners and mine laborers of the country, says in part: "We have greater confidence of victory than ever. The supply of coal on hand is still low and would have been entirely consumed before this time were it not for a few sections of West Virginia, Southern Illinois and a portion of Kentucky, Central and Northeastern Pennsylvania (anthracite), where no effort as yet has been made to have them join our movement, which, when done, will soon decide the contest."

In Western Pennsylvania 1,000 men have stopped work since the last bulletin was issued. This makes a total of 21,000 men now idle. In Ohio 28,000, or all, are idle. If Kentucky and Tennessee little change has occurred. About 4,000 miners are idle there.

In Indiana the supply of coal is almost shut off and 8,000 miners are idle. Fully 35,000 mine workers in Illinois have laid down their tools. The suspension is practically general.

PUDDLERS WILL TAKE LESS.
New Scale, to Be Settled To-day, Means 10 to 20 Per Cent Reduction.

Pittsburg, July 29.—Reliable information comes to those interested in the iron trade that to-morrow the scale of wages for 16,000 puddlers and finishers will be settled at a reduction ranging from 10 to 20 per cent. A conference, a final one, it is said,

Her Honeymoon Will Be Spent in South America.

THE steamer Prudence, which sails to-day, carries as occupants of the bridal state-room Colonel William B. Dickey, the newly appointed Consul at Calao, Peru, and his bride. They have been stopping at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The meeting and marriage of the couple constituted a romance of the extra session of Congress.

Colonel Dickey, who won his rank from private to colonel in command of the Eighth Maine Infantry, married soon after the war and took his bride to New Orleans, where she died after two years of married life. That was twenty-nine years ago.

The opening day of the extra session found Colonel Dickey and the lady who was to become his wife in the crowd which sought admittance to the gallery of the House. She had lost her ticket; the Colonel tendered her his. Introductions followed. It was a case of love at first sight, and while Mr. McKinley was trying to make up his mind as to what port he would send Colonel Dickey that gentleman was paying court to the lady who is now his wife.

Mrs. Dickey, who is beautiful and highly accomplished, is a native of Albany, where her family, the Albrights, are widely known. Her first husband was John V. Marshall, senior member of the firm of Marshall & Wendell, the oldest firm of piano manufacturers in the State of New York.

will be held in Youngstown to-morrow between the manufacturers and the Scale Committee of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. Puddling wages will drop from $4.50 per ton to $4 per ton. The iron workers are constrained to accept this cut in order to preserve their union. The iron trade has been in such poor condition for the past six months that to insist upon enforcing the rates of last year would mean a battle that must in the end destroy the manufacturer or the workmen's union, and the odds are against the union.

PREACHERS IN JAIL.

Eight of Them Charged with a Conspiracy Which Led to the Murder of P. H. Patterson.

Montgomery, Ala., July 29.—Eight negro preachers are in jail here to-night, charged with conspiracy in the murder of P. H. Patterson, the negro deacon, who was shot to death in the Baptist Church here yesterday. Patterson's church has employed able attorneys to ferret out the alleged conspiracy and the other congregation has its brace of strong lawyers. The Grand Jury is investigating the case.

The coroner is also holding an investigation and several witnesses were examined before him to-day. It is said that the Grand Jury will be shown a letter recently received by Patterson, in which his life was threatened if he contested the seats of Brown's delegation.

BONK SAYS HIS WIFE IS INSANE.

He Finds Added Proof of This in Her Neighbors' Talk.

SHE TRIED TO KILL HIM.

Her Mother, Brother and Sister
Urged Him to Cause Her Commitment.

Hyman Bonk, whose charge of insanity against his wife has excited to exasperation the enmity of his neighbors, obtained a card of admission to Ward's Island yesterday, saying:

"I shall see my wife, and if the physician in charge of her case tells me that she is well and I shall be happy."

His card of admission is for to-day. Small, stout, with a heavy black mustache and black eyes, he has a distinctive habit of touching his chin with his forefinger in his persuasive gestures. He said:

"My wife showed the signs of insanity which I have suffered from three weeks ago for the first time. She had not slept in several nights, and she awoke me suddenly, shouting, 'Hyman, dear, I am going to my millinery store as soon as I get it.' I knew then she must be out of her mind."

"I replied, 'Fannie, dear, your millinery store would not be open in the middle of the night.' But she raved about it and would not hush."

Tried to Stab Him.
"This happened on a Sunday night. The next evening her sister sent for her mother, who lives at Rochester. Her mother came and kept her quiet until Sunday morning, when she tried to stab me with a knife."

"I went to my father, who said, 'Hyman, you will be killed.' So I did not return home that day. She came to my office the next day and said, 'My husband is away from the house.' I love her with all my heart, but I was frightened. I took her to the shop and bought shoes for her, but I would not stay at the house."

"The next day she showed the face of her mother and struck the shoulder of her sister. Her sister rushed into my office, crying at the top of her voice. 'What can I do? She is insane!' I said I did not know, and I went for her mother. Her brother came, and said, 'You must send her to the asylum, or she will kill you.' What could I do?"

"My mother, her sister, her brother, my father urged that I should make the complaint which brought her before Magistrate Knickerbocker."

"Dr. Fitch, at Bellevue, seeing me heart-broken and in tears, said that my mental derangement would not last long. I had to submit to the inevitable."

"Your neighbors say that you took all the money she earned, maltreated her in being miserly to her, and were persecuting her because she is not orthodox," he was told.

Bonk Denies Charges.
"She earned no money," he replied. "She went to a millinery store for a time last Summer to replace the proprietor's daughter, whose husband was dead. I gave her $500.00 in 1894, and $500 since January this year. My books will prove this. She never gave me any money except $200 at our marriage. With that money I bought furniture. I have taken this furniture out of her flat at No. 174 Lexington avenue since her commitment and stored it in the warehouse at Lexington avenue and Forty-second street in her name."

"If the neighbors in their charges against me only repeat what she said to them they are repeating her own proofs of her insanity. We were happy. I love her, and she loved me. There was no disagreement between us until three weeks ago."

"I have a suspicion the wife's lavish liberality to the neighbors explains their resentment against me. I do not know them. I never met them. She spent $100 in a week, from July 1 to July 3. She spent the money in gifts to them. Why haven't they come to me?"

"They could not find you. They say that one of them had a rope to lynch you. If you were found," he was told. Hyman Bonk shrugged his shoulders and said: "Mrs. Malgood found me. I am living with my father at No. 105 Stanton street. Mrs. Malgood is an insane nurse and offered to take care of my wife in rooms at No. 1754 Lexington avenue. But I refused. I want my wife to be cured by competent physicians. I love her."

May Be Habeas Corpus.

Hyman Bonk's exasperated neighbors have consulted a lawyer, who has advised habeas corpus proceedings. J. O. Wickenden, of No. 80 East One Hundred and Ninth street, leads them. G. E. Klutznick, the pharmacist; A. Levy, the tailor; H. Lieberman and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacNichol persisted yesterday in their assertion that Mrs. Bonk was of sound mind.

MOB LAW IN MOBILE.

Troops Guard the Prisons Where Two Negroes Are Locked Up for Murders Committed Wednesday Night.

Mobile, Ala., July 29.—This city is in a turmoil to-day as the result of three murders which occurred last night, and which have driven the people to the highest pitch of frenzy. Business is practically suspended. On all sides the opinion is freely expressed that summary justice should be meted out.

Thomas Jones, sixty-three years of age, a Confederate veteran, was killed by Isaiah Davis, a negro, last night. The crowd which rapidly assembled was about to lynch Davis when the police officers rescued him with difficulty and put him in the city jail. All night long a desperate and determined crowd of men remained outside the jail. Before midnight, Mayor Bush called out the local troops, but of the eight hundred men composing the First Brigade in the city, only seventy-five responded. They lay under arms all night.

The prisoner was brought before the Recorder this morning and held for murder. Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning Willie Knight, a negro, shot and instantly killed another negro named Daniel Taylor. As he was being chased by the police Knight shot and mortally wounded Policeman Joe Tucker. For this latter offense he probably will die if the residents of the northern part of the city can get him out of the County Jail, where he now is.

KNOWS RYDER'S LYNCHERS

Governor Atkinson Has the Names of Several of Them and Has Offered Rewards for the Arrest of Others.

Atlanta, July 29.—After giving a secret hearing to-day to two of the brothers of Dr. W. L. Ryder, lynched in Talbot County last week, Governor Atkinson offered the following rewards:

$500 for the arrest and conviction of the first two members of the mob that lynched Ryder; $100 for each subsequent arrest and conviction; and $250 for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons hindering or interfering with the bringing of the lynchers to justice.

The Governor announces that he has in his possession the names of several of the lynching mob.
